PCC and its PRESTIGE CAPITAL Service Mark

11. PCC was founded in 1986, and since then, and continuing through the present, Plaintiff has been continually involved in providing financial services to commercial third parties, including providing account receivable financing.

12. During its time in business, PCC has developed a strong and respected reputation in the commercial finance industry and among commercial third parties to whom Plaintiff provides, and has offered to provide, financial services, including account receivable financing.

13. Since its founding, PCC has become known for its integrity in the commercial finance industry and its service among commercial third parties to whom Plaintiff provides, and has offered to provide, financial services, including account receivable financing.

14. PCC is the owner of a valid and subsisting service mark PRESTIGE CAPITAL that is registered with the United States Patent and Trademark Office, Trademark Registration No. 4,131,228, which was registered on or about April 24, 2012.

15. PCC has used the PRESTIGE CAPITAL Service Mark in commerce in the State of New York and in interstate commerce continuously, and upon information and belief, has been the sole and exclusive user of the PRESTIGE CAPITAL Service mark, since at least April 15, 1986, in connection with providing various financial services to commercial third parties, including account receivable financing.

16. As a result of its widespread, continuous and exclusive use of the PRESTIGE CAPITAL Service Mark to identify its financial services to commercial third parties and PCC as the source of these financial services, Plaintiff owns valid and subsisting federal statutory and common law rights to the PRESTIGE CAPITAL Service Mark.

17. Plaintiff's PRESTIGE CAPITAL Service Mark is distinctive to both commercial third parties who seek out the financial services of Plaintiff and the commercial finance industry.

18. PCC has expended substantial time, money and resources developing, marketing, advertising and promoting its financial services, which are sold under the PRESTIGE CAPITAL Service Mark.

19. The financial services offered by PCC under its PRESTIGE CAPITAL Service Mark are of the highest quality, and as a result of Plaintiff's expenditures and efforts, financial services associated with the PRESTIGE CAPITAL Service Mark have acquired incalculable reputation and goodwill belonging exclusively to Plaintiff.

Defendants' Unlawful Activities

20. Upon information and belief, Smallwood Prestige Capital Defendant has represented that it is engaged in the same business as PCC.

21. Without PCC's authorization, and upon information and belief, beginning after Plaintiff acquired protectable exclusive rights in its PRESTIGE CAPITAL Service Mark, Defendants used, and continue to use, Prestige Capital (the "Infringing Mark") in commerce in the United States.

22. The Infringing Mark adopted and used by Defendants is identical in pertinent part and confusingly similar to Plaintiff's PRESTIGE CAPITAL Service Mark.

23. Upon information and belief, Defendants have been engaged in marketing, advertising and offering financial services using the Infringing Mark in commerce in the United States, in part through telephone solicitation to commercial third parties.

24. Upon information and belief, during telephone calls with commercial third parties when soliciting business with respect to the financial services offered by Smallwood Prestige Capital, Defendants have engaged in an intentionally deceptive and patently confusing practice of describing Smallwood Prestige Capital as being PRESTIGE CAPITAL and referring to Smallwood Prestige Capital as PRESTIGE CAPITAL in an attempt to pass off its financial services as being offered by Plaintiff, which has caused instances of actual confusion to commercial third parties. Further, upon information and belief, during these telephone calls, if commercial third parties inquire about the nature of the business of Smallwood Prestige Capital, Defendants refer the commercial third parties to Plaintiff and its website, which has further caused instances of actual confusion to commercial third parties.

25. Upon information and belief, the financial services being offered by Defendants to commercial third parties are similar to the financial services being offered by PCC to commercial third parties under its PRESTIGE CAPITAL Service Mark.

26. Defendants' misappropriation and improper use of Plaintiff's PRESTIGE CAPITAL Service Mark have already deceived, confused, and misled, and are likely to deceive, confuse and mislead, current and prospective commercial third parties into believing that the financial services provided by Small Prestige Capital are provided by, authorized by, or in some way associated with Plaintiff. The actual confusion, mistake, and deception, as well as the likelihood of confusion, mistake, and deception, engendered by Defendants' misappropriation and improper use of the PRESTIGE CAPITAL Service Mark has caused and is causing irreparable harm to the goodwill symbolized by Plaintiff's PRESTIGE CAPITAL Service Mark.

27. Upon information and belief, Defendants are and will continue to misappropriate and use Plaintiff's registered PRESTIGE CAPITAL Service Mark in connection with the offering financial services that are directly competitive with the financial services offered by PCC.

28. Upon information and belief, Defendants have knowingly, willfully, intentionally, and maliciously appropriated and used Plaintiff's PRESTIGE CAPITAL Service Mark.

29. Under cover of letter date July 5, 2016, counsel for Plaintiff contacted Smallwood Prestige Capital and demanded that:

"[Smallwood Prestige Capital] immediately cease and desist from (a) using the term PRESTIGE CAPITAL, and any variations of PRESTIGE CAPITAL, in the provision of commercial lending and capital resources, including accounts receivable, as well as any related products, and (b) holding itself out to be either PCC or in any way affiliated with PCC. Further, unless T. Smallwood Corp. enters into a consent decree that sets forth that your company will cease and desist, now and in the future, (a) from using the trademark of PCC and (b) holding itself out to be either PCC or affiliated with PCC, then we will commence litigation against, among others, T. Smallwood Corp., wherein PCC will seek not only injunctive relief but monetary damages.

If T. Smallwood Corp. wishes to amicably resolve the claims of PCC, then either your attorney or an authorized representative of your company should contact me by no later than the close of business on July 11, 2016. Otherwise, PCC will assume that T. Smallwood Corp. has no interest in amicably resolving the claims outlined in this letter and PCC will proceed accordingly against your company."
